

“Envision gave me the chance to meet other kids who are blind and build friendships. They gave me a chance to have fun without worry and build my self-confidence.”

Alysha Jeans participated in the Envision Kids Club from 1997 until 2006

“Being involved with Envision has strengthened my self-confidence. The connection also provided lifelong friendships within the visually impaired community, deepening my desire to reach out to youth with low vision.”

Sarah Peterson became involved with Envision Kids Club in 2004 at the age of 12.

One in every 20 preschool children has an eye problem that, if left uncorrected, can lead to permanent vision loss.
