The Story of JWOD and AbilityOne

In 1938, the Wagner-O'Day Act was enacted by Congress and signed by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The act harnessed the purchasing power of the federal government to create opportunities for workers who were blind. In 1971, Senator Jacob Javits championed a revision of the act that included people with other disabilities, while adding services to the products already covered and was renamed the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Act. In 2006, the Javits-Wagner-O'Day Program was renamed the AbilityOne Program.

Today, AbilityOne is managed by the U.S. AbilityOne Commission, an independent federal agency, with assistance from National Industries for the Blind and SourceAmerica (formerly National Industries for the Severely Handicapped) in the implementation and execution of the program.

Founded in 1931, Envision Dallas is a leading North Texas nonprofit that provides employment and resources for individuals who are visually impaired. Envision Dallas focuses on providing inspiration and opportunity to more than 150,000 people who are blind or visually impaired living in its 11-county North Texas service area.

In 2018, Dallas Lighthouse for the Blind became part of the Envision, Inc. family, allowing for an expansion of services and employment for people with visual impairments. Envision is headquartered in Wichita, Kansas and has locations in 11 states. The organization is one of the largest employers of people who are blind or visually impaired in the United States.

In 2024, Envision Dallas Expands to a 210,000 sq. ft. building in Farmers Branch. Our guiding principle is the belief that with knowledge, training and motivation, people with visual impairments can succeed and thrive in any workplace, live productive and meaningful lives and be important contributors to their communities.
